Outdoor Recreation

While you are checking out your kayak or paddle board from outdoor recreation rentals, don’t forget to check out a guide book like Arizona’s Scenic Roads and Hikes: Unforgettable Journeys in the Grand Canyon State. “In this captivating new guide, Roger Naylor features all twenty-seven of Arizona's state-designated scenic and historic roads, including five National Scenic Byways.” (Description provided by the publisher) This travel guide book is available in Overdrive, where you can check out eBooks and audiobooks. Just go to hazylibrary.erau.edu and select “Overdrive” from the database list. Prefer print? Use the “catalog” tab and search through books in the Yavapai Library Network (YLN) which can be delivered to you at the Hazy Library for pickup.
Host a fun movie night at home! Check out one of our digital projectors, grab some snacks and pillows and you are all set! Projectors are easily set up using the provided cords or by connecting to your Wi-Fi network. We also have a portable speaker and microphone if you are in need of tunes or an at home karaoke night! To check a projector out, come to the Help Desk on the second floor of the library.

We are excited to welcome two new library team members! NAM NGUYEN is our Library Technologies Associate and DANI CARMACK is our new Research and Instruction Librarian.
Need some light reading while you’re lounging on your patio or logging hours in the car on that road trip? Maybe you’re ready to start a new hobby or a yoga practice? Digital magazines are available through Overdrive! There’s something for everyone including: HGTV Magazine, National Geographic, Yoga Journal, Popular Science, The Economist, Cooks Illustrated and many more! For all Overdrive content, download the Libby App for easy reading.

Does the question, “What’s for dinner?” bring you dread? Get inspired by checking out a cookbook! Use the Cooking and Food collection on Overdrive or browse cookbooks in Yavapai Library Network (YLN).
